

A decorative border of black line-art bees surrounds the text. The bees are arranged in vertical columns on the left and right sides, and a horizontal row at the top. The bees are stylized with wings and antennae.

Bentham Garden Food Day
Saturday 16th July 2011

Edible Garden Trail

Open 1pm - 4pm

www.benthamlocalfood.org.uk

Bentham
Environmentally Sustainable
Town

The Gardens and their Gardeners

- 1 Looking Well, King Street
- 2 Longacre, Burnside Nurseries      Stella & Chris Hall
Low Bentham Road
- 3 40 Lakeber Avenue      Timothy and Edith Fox
- 4 4 Lakeber Close      Joan and Rod Foster
- 5 Kronah, Springfield      John and Sue Pilkington
- 6 9 Pye Busk      Annie Neligan
- 7 7 Summerhill      Joyce Knapp
- 8 Station: Westbound platform

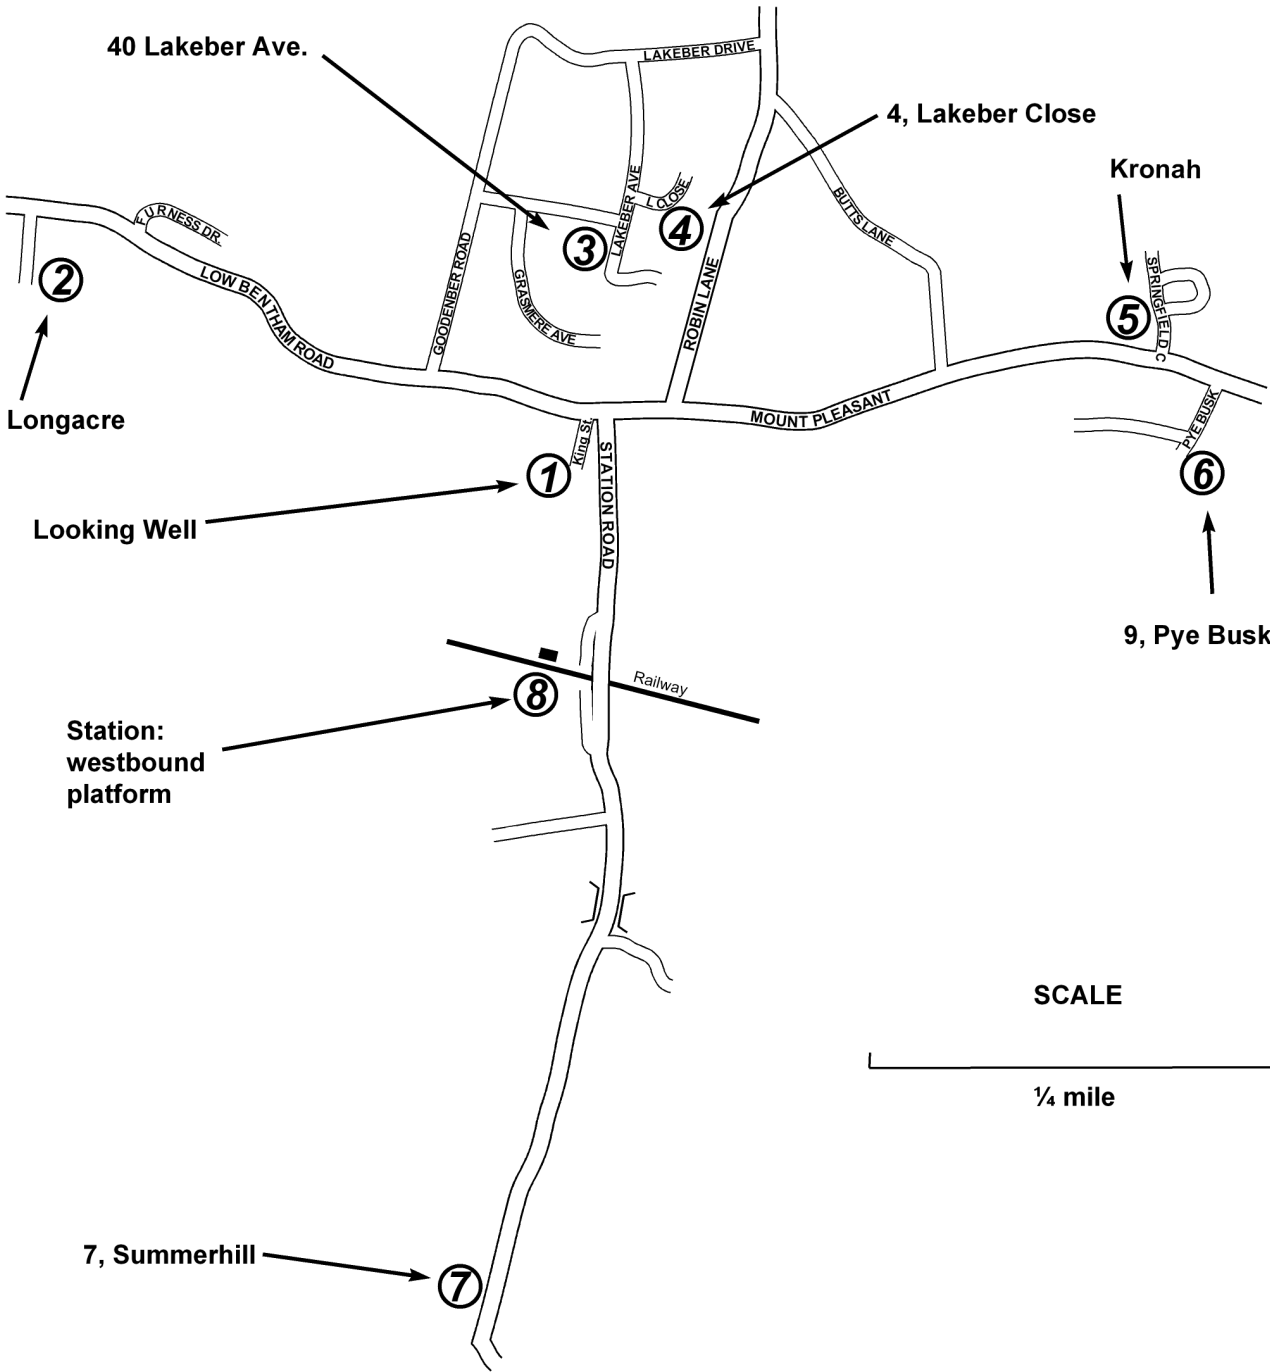

Balloons and the number (1-8) will be found outside participating gardens

Take care as you explore, and if you have children with you, please make sure they don't damage themselves, or the plants!

Garden Teas will be available from 1pm to 4pm in the Looking Well Garden

BEST wishes to thank all the gardeners for kindly making their gardens available for the trail

BENTHAM EDIBLE GARDEN TRAIL 16th July 2011

40 Lakeber Ave.
Longacre

4, Lakeber Close

Kronah

Looking Well

Station: westbound
platform

9, Pye Busk

SCALE

1/4 mile

7, Summerhill